

REINFORCING

The European platform for
Open and Responsible Research and
Innovation practices

REINFORCING aims to become the EU Open and Responsible Research and Innovation (ORRI) central point of knowledge and expertise that supports territories and institutions in implementing ORRI activities. This will be achieved through the One-Stop Source platform.

The One-Stop Source provides you with:

Grants

Financial support through 7 open calls to fund organizations that are newcomers wishing to embark on ORRI and experienced entities looking for strengthening ORRI implementation.

ORRI Community

REINFORCING's ORRI Community will bring together experienced organizations and facilitators who have had their own ORRI journeys and can share their experiences.

Tools

Useful resources and best practices to inspire and help institutions in designing and implementing their ORRI actions.

Training

Training opportunities delivered by experienced experts about specific ORRI needs emerging from the interaction with the community.

Pathways

Specific guidance fitting concrete ORRI challenges to improve ORRI processes.
